

DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

Working with children from a Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CaLD) background

It is important for us to understand the cultural factors that influence relationships and practices, so that we can deliver culturally appropriate, child-centred care.

Participants will learn:

- How to work effectively with children and families from CaLD backgrounds
- How to understand our own world view with regard to cultural diversity
- Strategies to meet the different needs of CaLD children in care, including strategies to deal with misunderstandings and conflict
